Florida Commission on Ethics Complaint Form Statement of Facts

Complainant, Complainant ("Complainant"), files this Ethics Complaint against Collier County Commissioner, William L. McDaniel, Jr. ("Commissioner McDaniel"). Through investigatory efforts and public record searches, Complainant has discovered that Commissioner McDaniel is either (i) residing in a district different than the one he has been elected to serve as a public official and is, therefore, not qualified, as a matter of law, to serve as a County Commissioner; or (ii) residing in a district that he has been elected to serve and is committing tax fraud by claiming a right to the Homestead Exemptions afforded to Florida citizens. Complainant has also discovered that Commissioner McDaniel falsely described his residence in 2016 and 2020 election filings. As described more fully herein, Commissioner McDaniel has breached, and continues to breach, the public trust.

The Florida Residency Requirement for County Commissioners

According to Florida law, a County Commissioner must reside in the district that he or she is elected to serve. See Fla. Const. Art. VIII, Section 1 (e) (requiring residency of county commissioners in the district in which they are elected). This requirement is absolute. Presently, Commissioner McDaniel serves as the District 5 Commissioner for Collier County. As such, and as required by law, Commissioner McDaniel must reside in District 5 to qualify for office as a county commissioner. According to public records, Commissioner McDaniel owns property located in a different district that he is elected to serve—561 Logan Blvd. N., Naples, FL 34119 (561 Logan Blvd. N."). Commissioner McDaniel's 2023 property tax bill for 561 Logan Blvd. N. includes an exemption for homestead, pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 196.031. (2023 561 Logan Blvd. N. Tax Bill, Exhibit A). As far back as 2009, the last historical year of tax bills available on Collier County Property Appraiser's website, Commissioner McDaniel received a homestead exemption at 561 Logan Blvd. N. (2009 561 Logan Blvd. N. Tax Bill, Exhibit B). Based on these facts, alone, Commissioner McDaniel should be disqualified from public office as a county commissioner because he is claiming homestead on property that is not within the district he is elected to serve.

Commissioner McDaniel's Prior Representations about his Residency

Despite claiming a homestead exemption at 561 Logan Blvd. N., Complainant has reason to believe that Commissioner McDaniel does not reside at this address. A review of photographs recently taken from 561 Logan Blvd. N reveal that nobody appears to reside at this address even though Commissioner McDaniel claims it to be his homestead. (Photographs of 561 Logan Blvd. N., Exhibit C).

{00077180:2}

Court documents reveal that Commissioner McDaniel does not reside at 561 Logan Blvd. N. As shown in Exhibit D, Commissioner McDaniel's son indicated that Commissioner McDaniel does not reside at 561 Logan Blvd. N., and, in fact, he resides out of state in Pennsylvania:

Additional Information pertaining to this Service:

10/18/2023 7:05 pm. Per the server, the address provided is a "dump", and no one is residing there. Server encountered a young male unloading debris from his pick up truck at the address provided. He identified himself as William McDaniel, III, and stated that the defendant is his father, William McDaniel Jr. and is currently residing in Pennsylvania. The male went on to say that the two are estranged and that he does not have his contact information. 10/21/2023 10:20 am Attempted service at 710 20th Street southeast, Naples, FI. 34117- Server spoke with Mario Calderone who stated that his wife worked for the defendant as his secretary over two years ago, but had no further information relative to his whereabouts or contact information. 10/24/2023 6:10 pm. Server was advised by the client, that the witness is a Collier County Commissioner, and is presently in a meeting at the Collier County Commissioner's Office. Server arrived at the building located at 3299 Tamiami Trail, Naples FI 34112 at approx, 4:50 PM, and was escorted to the fourth floor where he met two security guards. Server informed them of his served. At approx, 5:15 pm server was instructed to wait in the ante-room until they took a break and he would be notified to on the defendant's behalf.

It has become increasingly clear to Complainant that Commissioner McDaniel does not reside at 561 Logan Blvd. N., despite receiving the homestead exemption. Commissioner McDaniel's fraudulent homestead exemption has provided, and continues to provide, him with significant private gain. Property owners who claim fraudulent homestead exemptions are "subject to unpaid taxes, plus a penalty of 50 percent of the unpaid taxes for each year and 15 percent interest per annum." Fla. Stat. § 193.155 (10).

If Commissioner McDaniel does, in fact, reside at 561 Logan Blvd. N., other issues arise in regard to his residency in District 5—as 561 Logan Blvd. N. is not located within District 5.

Commissioner McDaniel's False Election Paperwork

Commissioner McDaniel must have been living in District 5 (not at 561 Logan Blvd. N.) since his election to District 5 in 2016, or else he has violated the Florida Constitution's residency requirement for county commissioners. To locate Commissioner McDaniel, Complainant reviewed historical election records. In 2016, Commissioner McDaniel listed 7000 Big Island Ranch Road, Naples, FL 34120 as his address, which is within District 5. (2016 Candidate Oath, Exhibit E). However, that location is a commercial parcel of land that is zoned in such a way that it would be illegal to reside at that address. In 2020, Commissioner McDaniel identified 710 20th Street SE, Naples, Florida 34117 as his residence, which is within District 5. (2020 Candidate Oath, Exhibit F). Complainant has learned that this not a residence of Commissioner McDaniel, and Complainant has secured a sworn statement from the owners of 710 20th Street SE who have declared that it would be false for anyone to contend that Commissioner McDaniel ever resided at 710 20th Street SE. (Declaration of Mario Calderon, Exhibit G).

Through this information, Commissioner McDaniel has, since he became a County Commissioner in 2016, filed false and misleading information to gain public office. In 2016, Commissioner McDaniel claimed an address that is zoned for a commercial use (and, therefore, illegal to claim residence). In 2020, his most recent filing to support his public office, Commissioner McDaniel claimed an address for a residence that the true owners indicate, under oath, to be false and untrue. These false filings are a breach of the public's trust.

Conclusion

Commissioner McDaniel has either fraudulently claimed homestead on 561 Logan Blvd. N. or he has violated the Florida Constitution's residency requirements for county commissioners by way of his residence at 561 Logan Blvd. N. (located within District 3; not District 5). Either violation by Commissioner McDaniel warrants a thorough investigation by the Florida Commission on Ethics, as both violations constitute an egregious breach of the public's trust for Commissioner McDaniel's own private gain.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE TWENTIETH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR COLLIER COUNTY, FLORIDA CIVIL DIVISION

NAPLES GOLF DEVELOPMENT, LLC, a Michigan Limited Liability Company, Plaintiff,

v.

Case No.: 23-CA-2995

WILLIAM MCDANIEL, JR., a Florida Resident

Defendant.

DECLARATION OF MARIO CALDERON

I, Mario Calderon, declare, under penalties of perjury and based on my personal knowledge, as follows:

1. I am over the age of 18 and am competent to testify to the matters stated herein.

 My wife, Tara Calderon, and I have owned and resided at the property located at 710 20th Street SE, Naples, FL 34117 since 1994.

 Commissioner William McDaniel, Jr. ("Commissioner McDaniel") has never resided, lived, or slept at our home located at 710 20th Street SE, Naples, FL 34117.

 It would be untrue for anyone to represent that Commissioner McDaniel has ever lived or resided at our family home.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing and that the facts stated are true, to the best of my knowledge.

Alleria Callen
